Come and learn to use your body to play, communicate, interact and to express yourself - Capoeira can be both, flirtatious game or serious fight and everything in between.

Acrobatics, music, (afro)Brazilian history and culture, acting, deception, slyness are all part of this athletic ritual and physical communication arts form.

„Occidental thinking struggles to classify Capoeira, to comprehend it logically, and European perception, too, has difficulties with the Brazilian fight dance, as there are worlds clashing here which conventional sense of beauty is accustomed to neatly separate. Capoeira combines such conflictive components as fight and dance, violence and aesthetics, game and deadly seriousness, ritual and spontaneity, choreographic rigour and movement improvisation, magic and sense of reality, body training and life philosophy.“ (Quote by Piero Onori; translation: Christoph Rasch)

This workshop will give self-identified queer Nobodies the chance to come and meet each other, make connections, and identify friendly and likeminded faces on the playa. While Nowhere is an inclusive community, as queers we have noticed that public workshops and play can seem very heteronormative. It can be hard to identify other queers and work out which people are safe for us to be fully self-expressed around. Queer is an identity, not an aesthetic, and not everyone might want or be able to "look" queer, whatever that means. So let's get together and introduce ourselves! Come and meet other queers, and join the conversation about queer visibility, how it feels to be a queer Nobody, and how to make Nowhere a more welcoming and inclusive space for us. For the purpose of this workshop "queer" includes any bisexual, trans, non-binary, lesbian, gay, genderfluid, agender, intersex, pansexual, or asexual Nobodies who identify as queer. All are welcome - we are not the queer police so if you think you belong at this workshop, please come!

Dance Meditation

🔥 Workshop 🌿 Playground 🕒 Wed 10:00 - 11:00 👤 Stefanie Delilah ⚠️ Adult

"Meditation starts by being separate from the mind, by being a witness. That is the only way of separating yourself from anything. If you are looking at the light, naturally one thing is certain: you are not the light, you are the one who is looking at it. If you are watching the flowers, one thing is certain: you are not the flower, you are the watcher." Osho, The Invitation, Talk #21
Dance meditation is a form of active meditation which offers the possibility to connect to what lives inside of yourself, your emotions, thoughts, dreams, feelings.. It is an exercise in witnessing yourself, the thoughts, emotions, experiences, of everything inside you. The movement allows you to think less and experience more. In a dance meditation the dancer will go on a journey through different musical rhythms and will be encouraged to practice in following the body in this dance instead of making the body following you. After a short warm-up to root ourselves into our bodies, we will turn our focus inwards and move with what presents itself at that moment.

NUDE-INN

🍷 Spiritual / Healing 🍷 Garden of Joy 🍷 Thu 23:00 - Fri 02:00 🍷 JEROME

NATUREL

We live in a world that has done an excellent job of dictating our vision of 'beautiful,' 'feminine' or 'viril,' and 'acceptable.' In a world that makes use of this vision to sell, manipulate and mostly shame. We are all different, with different shapes and sizes. But we are all beautiful in our own right.

How many of us wouldn't dream to let go, challenge themselves to feel comfortable in their own skin ?

Following the tradition of Critical Mass or Tits, Nude-Inn gives you this opportunity. Allowing men and women taking part in the Garden of Joy to celebrate who they are. In their birth clothes. To celebrate the beauty of their gender, in a safe and festive setting. During a party, participants will be invited to let go of as much clothes as they dare to & enjoy dancing in their most natural and minimal outfit.

We foresee "guardian angels" to protect the participants from onlookers, cameras, disrespectful behavior or inappropriate comments according to the following values:

- compassion for the risk being taken by the dancers
- appreciation for the cultural shift being created by this event
- respect for the human beings one might want to photograph : always ask first !

Dance Meditation

👉 Spiritual / Healing 🌱 Playground 🕒 Fri 10:00 - 11:00
👤 Stefanie Delilah 🚫 Adult

naturally one thing is certain: you are not the light, you are the one who is looking at it. If you are watching the flowers, one thing is certain: you are not the flower, you are the watcher." Osho, The Invitation, Talk #21
Dance meditation is a form of active meditation which offers the possibility to connect to what lives inside of yourself.

It is an exercise in witnessing yourself, the thoughts, emotions, experiences, of everything inside you. The movement allows you to think less and experience more. In a dance meditation the dancer will go on a journey through different musical rhythms and will be encouraged to practice in following the body in this dance instead of making the body following you. After a short warm-up to root ourselves into our bodies, we will turn our focus inward and move with what presents itself at that very moment.

Feeling shitty* about sex in sex positive spaces. *insecure, down, ashamed, confused, conflicted, sad, angry, etc.

👉 Workshop 🌱 Yes! 🕒 Fri 10:30 - 12:00
👤 Marije 🚫 Adult

In this discussion I want to address the feelings that aren't always regarded as easy or positive around sexuality, especially when we are in sex positive spaces. Not to problematize them, but to offer space to talk about them and share input on how to possibly work with them or work through those feelings. For me as a facilitator it's an important part of something which I call sexual integrity, a way of looking at sexuality and intimacy in all its shades, from horny, pleasurable, full of joy to complexity, insecurity, sadness or fear. Embracing them all, connecting to them and if wanted sharing them in connection with others.

Metamorphic moments

👉 Workshop 🌱 Chrysalis 🕒 Fri 16:00 - 17:30 🧑 Nehal

Do you find yourself again and again in similar interpersonal situations that you don't like, that don't serve you or others? Don't be afraid, that's pretty "normal"! Now it's time to change what doesn't serve you in the process of interacting with others! To get aware of these patterns is the first step to change them, but - as our human mind is hard and tricky to reprogram - not the only action step needed. Secondly we need to create a new concept for conscious interaction that can replace the old one. Thirdly we have to practice this new way of being with fun and pleasure again and again, so it will manifest more and more. In this playshop we will focus on step two. You will get the possibility to invent and explore new ways of inter-acting in a playful way and inside a supportive group that will constitute a safe space. Please bring a particular pattern/situation that you want to replace/replay, so do your homework :P and get aware of a particular automatic behaviour that prevents you from interacting with others as you would like to. *Depending on the amount of participants, the depth of the issues and the methods we choose to work with, there's no guarantee that everybody will be able to replay their situations long enough to experience a quantum leap. Considering that many personal issues/patterns have collective dimensions, it's worth to participate even if you would just watch the sessions.

Through the playful struggle with a self-chosen opponent, who can accept or reject the challenge, we get in contact with ourselves, with our positive and sometimes with the negatively evaluated sides. To fight in a playful and loving manner is honest, has a liberating effect and is incredibly fun. Playfighting is self-adventure, and can also bring dark characteristics of ourselves to light. We offer space to have fun here, but feelings can also be experienced and resolved, which have no place in the normal daily routine. How does it feel when I win? When I am defeated? Playfight is also an expression of sexuality. How do I change my behavior when I choose a person I like as an opponent? Inspired by Reinhardt from Schwelle center in Vienna. We will offer playfighting twice. Saturday morning with clothes, Sunday morning nudity is encouraged.

Clothes protect us against environmental hazards like heat and cold. To a certain extent this is both true and a lie. Take a journey with me where we explore the knife edge between the truth and the lie of clothes.

Why do many people feel uncomfortable or even freak out when they see genitals?

Why do animals have the right to be naked and humans don't?

Could everyday life work, if people were free to be nude?

Would you try to look healthy and maybe get into a better shape?

If there is nothing to hide, how would the view on sexuality change?

How does it feel showing our genitals like we show our hands, face or other body parts without shame?

Bare as you dare and sit down with us talking about being humans designed by nature.

„Occidental thinking struggles to classify Capoeira, to comprehend it logically, and European perception, too, has difficulties with the Brazilian fight dance, as there are worlds clashing here which conventional sense of beauty is accustomed to neatly separate. Capoeira combines such conflictive components as fight and dance, violence and aesthetics, game and deadly seriousness, ritual and spontaneity, choreographic rigour and movement improvisation, magic and sense of reality, body training and life philosophy.“ (Quote by Piero Onori; translation: Christoph Rasch)

Consent workshop and facilitated play party (version 2!)

🔥 Party 🍷 Barrio Queerdo 🕒 Sat 21:00 - 23:59 👤 Dean ▲ Adult

EVERYONE can improve their negotiation skills around touch, and this workshop helps you do this in an intuitive, embodied and non-pressured way. We start with various games to practice negotiation around giving and receiving (non-sexual) touch, with opportunities throughout to discuss and reflect on the experience. After a while, participants are invited (but not required!) to explore more sexual touch, and facilitation is gradually reduced, resulting in a free flowing play party within a held space. You are welcome to attend on your own or with (potential) play partners. Everyone is welcome and no-one will ever be required to touch anyone (sexually or otherwise).

Naked Play Fight

🔥 Workshop 🌱 Sssh! 🕒 Sun 08:00 - 09:30 👤 Eran 📌 Adult

Through the playful struggle with a self-chosen opponent, who can accept or reject the challenge, we get in contact with ourselves, with our positive and sometimes with the negatively evaluated sides. To fight in a playful and loving manner is honest, has a liberating effect and is incredibly fun. Playfighting is self-adventure, and can also bring dark characteristics of ourselves to light. We offer space to have fun here, but feelings can also be experienced and resolved, which have no place in the normal daily routine. How does it feel when I win? When I am defeated? Playfight is also an expression of sexuality. How do I change my behavior when I choose a person I like as an opponent? Inspired by Reinhardt from Schwelle center in Vienna. We will offer playfighting twice. Saturday morning with clothes, Sunday morning nudity is encouraged.

We've also got some new activities to enjoy including new workshops, reading corner and a few pop-up games to look out for. Also back this year with our sister camp Babycham, forming Pueblo Flandango, we'll have our usual kick-arse Thursday night village party with top-notch cocktails. This web of interlocking metal sculptures uncovers the relationships between the gift economy and ecology of the natural world. Exploring ways in which non hierarchical self-organizing ecosystems gives and sustains life in a multitude of forms without translations or final exchange. The installation invites you to give and receive, to partake the dynamic life processes that naturally interact with, adapt to and sustain one another.

(no) bodies in nowhere

A dozen life sized human sculpture installation, made of Iron and concrete, made in nowhere for nowhere, made somewhere for everybody.

Each sculpture is a never ending story about you, us and me.

Shadow Wall

The shadow wall installation is made of a photoluminescent painted wall where people stand, and by pressing a large bumper switch, a strong flash is ignited, leaving the cast of the shadow against the wall. The effect lasts about 30 seconds, then the installation is ready for another try.

This installation can be found in some science museums and is always a great hit, people trying to make the most crazy posture in front of the wall. Kids and grown ups love it.

Stargate

Forced from the ground or fallen from above, this burnt geometric skeleton raises from the dust creating a curious space to explore. By day the structure towers in the sun casting angular shadows across the ground. By night its true nature comes alive with a 3D mapped array of sparkling pixels along the whole structure. Each of the 2500 pixels are mapped to display custom visual art and experiences til dawn.

MansterVille

The MansterVille is an extension of a previous project - The MansterWheel. The artists are building a whole area of mechanical interactive attractions and smaller installations and decorations to create a wholesome experience for everybody. And there is a surprise to make it attractive to run inside even during the heat of the day...

The new addition of a sunshade means you can swing all day long. By night the flame projectors bring the installation alive and make a focal meeting point as a rest place between venues.

We will continue to add all our personal tales to the Burning Tales book. And as a surprise the 3rd side will be something new, this time helping burners in need.

Beauty Case

Beauty Case is a blackboard room, where people may experience what comes up when they interact and communicate by means of sketching on the walls with chalk sticks instead of talking to each other. It's a playground to experience love and relationship and express feelings and ideas visually.

The Disconnection Tent

A 'chill' or mation space that allows a single user or pair to disconnect audio-visually from their surroundings. The construction is tent-like in appearance and when sitting on the inside the user will experience a dynamic, audio activated light barrier to the outside world.

Space Tunnel

Interstellar travel! It's cosy and mind expanding!

There are a total of 5760 LEDs, arranged in 46 arches of light inside the tunnel... a touch screen lets you control your experience.

Cave of Lost Moments

Life is full of moments, some of which we're happy to have already experienced, some are still to come in the future and some others have been lost due to unfortunate circumstances. The Cave of Lost Moments is there to cater for the latter. The moments that were taken from us, either by ourselves or by others. The moments we could have had if things were differently. The moments we cannot relive because life has taken them from us. We're here to remember the good times, to remember what changed in the meantime, to let go of the sorrow and clean our thoughts so we can again rejoice the moment and live to the future.
